DUNTRY    Military Information from Wittenberg   Military Information from Wittenberg   Military Information from Wittenberg   Military Information from Wittenberg   Military Information   25X1		CLASSIFICATION_SEGRET,			AMERICAN A SPACE
This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. On 1b January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentrices observed were red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, 7-3-4/85 tanks  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submaching guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation. In barracks installations and private nodes. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X1	GOUNTRY	East Germany	REPORT	TOTAL PROPERTY.	25X1
PLACE OBTAINED.  DATE OF CONTENT  PATE OBTAINED.  DATE PREPARED.  DATE PREPARED.  17 February 1954  DATE PREPARED.  18 FERENCES  AGES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TVFE)  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentrices observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks	TOPIC	Military Information from Wittenberg	The second to the second Post of the Second		productive contravor residence see " 11 - 12 a
ALUATION PLACE OBTAINED  ATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  17 February 1954  EFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 through with installation. 25X  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 through with installation. 25X  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 through with installation. 25X  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At moon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 borders in friebo mear Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollenedorf by trucks  1. Comment. 1  1. Installations are occupied as previously. 25  2. Comment. 25  2. Comment. 25  2. Larry 1954  2. Larry 1954				61687.	And the second s
DATE OF CONTENT  ATE OBTAINED.  DATE PREPARED  17 February 1954  EFRENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  EMARKS  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 10 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Santries observed wore red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  26X1  26X2  26X3  At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epsulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Mattemberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  1. Comment.  1. Comment.  1. Comment.  1. Left Justerbog - Forst Zinna on	WALLIATION	PLACE OBTAINED		The control of the co	25X1
DATE PREPARED  DATE PREPARED  17 February 1954  DATE PREPARED  18 FERENCES  1
This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  1. On 1b January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 treops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian woman and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks  were seen leaving the installation.  2. On 16 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  1. Comment.  2. Left Justerbog - Forst Zinna on			ARED 17 Februa	ary 1954
This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 1b January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  [Aussian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trocks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X1  25X1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epsulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Gamment.  1. Gamment.  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epsulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  25X1  25X1			AREU	naudicisus subsection audicina dicaso vicination. Vivil vienna de seccional de	us exception of the control of the c
This is UNEVALUATED Information  This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignal. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks  Were seen leaving the installation.  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X1  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks  were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Mittenberg.  Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  25X  1. Gomment.  a unit of the Third Gds Mecz  Left Justerbog - Forst Zuma on		1	ne recognition de la company d	militara pierpas (Princes princes para par American da Simples (L. 174). (Piez da Apondacionia mante	AND THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER
This is UNEVALUATED Information  25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed were red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanked were seen leaving the installation. 25X They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns 1eft the installation toward the area southeast of the installation. In barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  2. On 16 January. all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 25X  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epsulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment. the two 25X  1. Comment. a unit of the Third Gds Mecz Army left Justerbog - Forst Zuma on		ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	en programme de la parte de la parte de la companya del companya de la companya de la companya del companya de la companya del la companya de	kappangangandaran etanop a ng 17,450 m. and inardian (alikanda). S	en en sentimente de la companie de l
25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tankel  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 were seen leaving the installation.  25X  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg.  Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment.    a unit of the Third 6ds Mecz Army   Left Justerbog - Forst Zunna on	EMARKS_			eng managan dan dan salah sanggar ang an ag calan an an ang ang ang ang ang ang ang ang	national annual and or the common artists of the con-
25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tankel  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 were seen leaving the installation.  25X  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg.  Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment.    a unit of the Third 6ds Mecz Army   Left Justerbog - Forst Zunna on		managada (p. 1. m. m. managan) natus managada (p. 10 m.	gar gygli v nitr triad triggerisses for group topic displayment curtify the general curtification.	Marie Carl State of Contract C	ga qayayaya yaka sakasa da asa da asa da a
25X1  1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tankel  They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachine guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 were seen leaving the installation.  25X  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg.  Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment.    a unit of the Third 6ds Mecz Army   Left Justerbog - Forst Zunna on				and the state of t	napholishon attitudi Magazila A. A. A. E. (1971) 414
1. On 16 January 1954, the Flak Kaserne in Wittenberg was occupied. Sentries observed wore red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. On 10 January, T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 25X They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 January, about 60 troops with submachina guns left the installation toward the area southeast of the installation.  Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  25X  25X1  25X2  25X2  25X2  25X3  25X3  25X4		This is UNEVALUATED Inform	mation
Russian women and children were quartered in barracks installations and private nouses. Trucks occupied by women and children entered the Flak Kaserne.  25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment. the two installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment. a unit of the Third Gds Mecz Left Jueterbog - Forst Zunna on		served wore red-bordered black epaulets with tanks They returned at about 4:15 p.m. On 13 James	tank insignia.  were seen leary, about 60 tr	On 10 January, aving the instal cops with submace	T-34/85 Llation. 25X
25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment. the two 25.  1. Comment. a unit of the Third Gds Mecz Left Jueterbog - Forst Zanna on					uartered 25)
25X  2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 1  25X1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment. the two installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment. a unit of the Third Gds Mecz left Jueterbog - Forst Zanna on
2. On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler Kaserne. At about 10:30 a.m., T-34/85 tanks were seen leaving the installation. 1  3. At noon on 22 January, about 120 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg. Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment. the two installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment. a unit of the Third Gds Mecz Left Jueterbog - Forst Zanna on				12:	25 Y
billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 boxcars in Griebo near Wittenberg.  Troops and equipment were hauled to Camp Appollensdorf by trucks  1. Comment.  installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment.  Army  left Jueterbog - Forst Zanna on	2.	On 16 January, all was quiet in the Beseler tanks were seen leaving the	Kaserne. At abo installation. 1	ut 10:30 a.m.,	r-34/85 installations are occupied as previously.  2. Comment.  Army  Army  Army  Installations are occupied as previously.  25.  26.  Army	3.	billeting equipment were unloaded from 12 bo	excars in Griebo	near Wittember	3 and 3• 25)
2. Comment.  a unit of the Third Gds Mecz  Army  left Jueterbog - Forst Zanna on	1.			the	two 252
Army left Justerbog - Forst Zinna on				P the Third Cd.	Mann
	۷.	Army

ASSISTED SECRET